IMPORTANT NOTICES

Your duty of disclosure

Subject to the rights set out in the Criminal Records ("Clean Slate") Act 2004, you are under a duty to disclose all material information to Vero Marine whether the information is asked for or not. Material information is information that might influence our decision to insure you and if so on what terms and/or premium. All information given must be complete and correct. If you have any doubt as to whether a fact is material then it should be disclosed.

The duty to disclose all material information occurs prior to the commencement of cover. If the contract is varied, and prior to each renewal. Failure to disclose all material information may result in Vero Marine avoiding your insurance policy. This means your policy would be deemed never to have existed and any claims would not be payable.

Privacy Act 1993

This Proposal collects personal information in order to evaluate your insurance requirements for the purpose of deciding whether to issue insurance cover and if so on what terms. The information collected will be held by Vero, 48 Shortland Street, Auckland. Failure to provide any personal information requested by Vero Marine may result in your application for insurance being declined.

Individuals have a right to request access to, and correction of, their personal information, subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1993.

DECLARATION

By completing and submitting this proposal form, I/we declared that to the best of my/our knowledge and belief these particulars are true, complete and correct. Subject to any right I/we have under the Clean Slate Act, I/we have not withheld any information or any other material fact likely to affect the provision of cover by Vero Marine.

I/We declare that:

1. Subject to any right I/we have under the Clean Slate Act, the information given is in every respect correct and complete and all material information, including details of previous losses/claims, has been disclosed to Vero Marine.
2. I/we undertake to exercise all ordinary and reasonable precautions for the safety of the boat and I/we warrant that the boat is well found and in every respect seaworthy.
3. This proposal shall be the basis of the contract between Vero Marine and myself/ourselves; and I am/we are willing to accept cover subject to Vero Marine's policy terms, conditions, exclusions and any special terms they may require.
4. Where the market value has been selected as the basis of cover, the figures are the current market value on the New Zealand market. I/we agree that if we have not selected a basis of cover, cover will be market value.
5. I/We are fully authorised to complete and sign this proposal on behalf of the person(s) named in the proposal.

I/We authorise:

1. Vero Marine to give and obtain from other insurance companies, insurance brokers, the Insurance Claims Register Ltd or any other party any information relating to this or any other insurance held or previously held by me/us and any claim(s) made by me/us.
2. Vero Marine to use my/our personal information to advise me/us of Vero's products and/or services.

I/We undertake to inform Vero Marine immediately of any material events or changes in circumstances which occur after the commencement of this policy and whenever the contract is varied or renewed.

This insurance will not be in force until this proposal has been accepted by Vero Marine

Please email this proposal to your intermediary for them to send to Vero Marine
